Council renting disabled bays out to builders

BY NICK SMITH AND JAMES AVERILL
editor@lsmmedia.co.uk

DISABLED drivers are being blocked from parking in a Luton street after the council agreed to rent out the bays to a construction company.

Half of the bays available to disabled people in King Street have disappeared as a result of the £500-a-month rental agreement, dubbed disgusting by disabled drivers.

There are four parking bays for blue badge holders on the road and two have been blocked off for construction workers.

A disabled driver, who asked not want to be named, said: "I think it's disgusting that the council can just loan them out to a builders when it is stopping disabled people from using them."

"What's the point of having disabled bays if they are not available for disabled people?"

"A construction firm is doing building work on that road, and the bays are being used by their vehicles, and they are closed off to disabled people with orange barriers."

He alleges the bays have been

BLOCKED OFF: Barriers surrounding part of the rented town centre disabled bay blocked off for around six months – something the council has refused to confirm.

"It's stopping the people who need them from using them, and the disabled bays are very busy and well used," the driver added.

"I think it really is disgusting what the council are doing."

A spokesman for the authority said the decision was 'not taken lightly' but that there was still 'significant' parking in the area for blue badge holders.

He added: "Following site meetings, the council agreed to the use of parking provision in King Street by a building company in order to facilitate the safe and efficient delivery of significant development works in this busy town centre location.

"This includes the partial use of a parking place normally reserved for blue badge holders specifically for deliveries, for which the fee has been set at £500 per month."

"The decision was not taken lightly but in the context that we provide significant other free-of-charge parking in the area for blue badge holders." He added that the vehicle pictured was not allowed to park in the space and enforcement officers have been informed.

DON'T LOOK DOWN: Visitors to Luton Mall had the chance to strike a pose and become the stars of a 3D artwork, celebrating UoB's new library

Getting lost in good page turner

SHOPPERS at The Mall in Luton found themselves falling head over heels for a new 3D artwork this week.

The immersive art – installed to celebrate the opening of the University of Bedfordshire's new library – uses an optical illusion to create a three-dimensional image, looking down through the seven storeys of the library.

Visitors were invited to take selfies as they balanced on a pile of books teetering on the edge of a huge drop.

For Parents and Guardians

Your guide to GCSE Results Day

With 25th August fast-approaching, we want you to be fully prepared for GCSE Results Day by knowing what to expect, and what to do should your child need to change their plans.

Before results day

Your child's school will have informed students on arrangements for results day. Generally, results can be collected directly from the school from 9am onwards though some schools may be open earlier/later.

No C in GCSE maths and/or English?

It's now a requirement to retake both maths and English until a grade C is obtained. Speak to school staff and ask what resit arrangements they have (usually held in November). Barnfield College's study programmes incorporate English and maths as standard so alongside a full-time course, your child can also work towards their English and maths.
(Courses listed on opposite page)

Results not as expected

If your child didn't get the grades they were expecting, don't worry, there are other options they can consider. Sometimes entry requirements are relaxed so speak to the school/college they applied to. If it's time for something new, then you'll need the right advice.

Barnfield College will be hosting dedicated Advice Days from 25th August. Your child will be able to get advice and pick an option that's best for them, apply on the spot, and be ready to start this September!

Thursday 25 August (GCSE Results Day)	8.30am - 8pm
Friday 26 August	8.30am - 5pm
Tuesday 30 August	8.30am - 6pm
Wednesday 31 August	8.30am - 6pm
Thursday 1 September	8.30am - 6pm
Friday 2 September	8.30am - 4.30pm

Remember to bring results transcript/certificates to confirm new options.

Apprenticeships - an alternative route

Your child may decide that they would prefer to work and learn at the same time. Apprenticeships are the perfect option for this. Barnfield College offers apprenticeships in a range of areas with local employers including Monarch, Toshiba, Mac Plasterboards and more. Current vacancies include hairdressing. Email Rachael.Rowett@barnfield.ac.uk or talk to our team at an Advice Day.

Start a course this September at Barnfield College

If you're undecided about what to do after school, or if you find you didn't get the grades you were expecting, we have places available for courses in the following subjects:

Editor's Letter

No such thing as an easy ride in A levels

TEACHERS and students will no doubt have been braced for the usual onslaught of 'A levels getting too easy'/'students have let things slip' diatribe this week.

As it turned out, the nation does not seem to know what to make of this year's results yet: top grades have fallen for the fifth year in a row while universities have offered a record number of places.

In Bedfordshire, we saw excellent results from a number of institutions and plenty of smiles on brown envelope day.

No matter what letters were on that piece of paper (or website, these days), anyone who knows an A level student will tell you there is certainly no easy ride when it comes to study and the prospect of bidding for jobs at such an uncertain time.

Getting into university brings its own challenges - financial, moral and intellectual - and is no guarantee of a job having racked up £50k of debt. Jumping straight into the job market is certainly no easy option either.

It will be the individual characters of our students that will see them through tough, but exciting, times ahead.

We should all be behind them.

Murder trial told accused's clothes were bloodstained

BY KATY HALLAM
editor@lsnmedia.co.uk

A YOUNG woman said to have been part of a gang that targeted a cannabis grower for his drugs and money sobbed as she told a court how her boyfriend appeared from the victim's flat with blood on his hoodie.

Atul Shah, 47, is said to have been beaten to death with a dumbbell at his flat in Crescent Road, Luton on January 6 this year. Corrina Armstrong, 21, told Luton Crown Court how she and her boyfriend Kyle Pitchford-Price and two other men had spent the night drinking and smoking drugs.

She said she was left waiting in a residential street by her boyfriend and Luke West while they went to 'buy weed'.

When they returned they both had blood on their clothes, she said. "I asked

VICTIM: Atul Shah

them what had happened and they said someone had been beaten up," Miss

Armstrong said. "He did tell me he did tie him up... I felt sick."

Pitchford-Price, 23, of Dovehouse Hill, Luton and West, 23, of Abbotts Wood Road, Luton plead not guilty to murder.

West pleads guilty to manslaughter.

Miss Armstrong, also of Dovehouse Hill, Pitchford-Price, Callum Holton, 19, of Milton Road, Luton and West all plead not guilty to conspiracy to rob Mr Shah.

Pitchford-Price, Holton and Armstrong deny conspiracy to commit a burglary. Pitchford-Price and Armstrong plead guilty to conspiracy to do an act tending or intended to pervert the course of public justice.

Brian Edge, 56, of Harthill Drive, Luton was cleared of assisting an offender but is still on trial for doing an act tending or intended to pervert the course of public justice.

Hero Felix boards the plane to save the day

BY JAMES AVERILL
editor@lsmmedia.co.uk

A SEVEN-YEAR-OLD boy who has had more than 20 blood transfusions saved the day for a plane full of holidaymakers at Luton Airport - when his wish to be a superhero came true.

Felix Stebbings-Mitchell was diagnosed with the rare blood disorder XLD type 2 last summer and may need a bone marrow transplant in future to stay healthy.

He is also on the autistic spectrum which has led to a fascination with pylons because he likes the shape.

And thanks to Make A Wish Foundation and staff at easyJet, he transformed into a pylon-powered superhero called Electroman.

He acted out his costumed alter-ego on an adventure on the passenger jet and his wish was made into a comic strip and film for him to treasure.

Felix was flown over pylons by a National Grid helicopter, before clocking a 'news report' on his tablet of a pilot in need at Luton Airport.

Flanked by sister Yael, nine, aka Sparkgirl, the duo went to the aid of pilot Captain Chris Foster.

Once Felix had inspected the aircraft and re-energised the electrics, the passengers and crew cheered and high-fived Electroman and Sparkgirl, then set off on holiday while the superheroes went on to a special party which included a 3D pylon cake.

WE CAN BE HEROES: It's Electroman and Sparkgirl, aka Felix and Yael, to the rescue

Felix, from London, is being treated at Great Ormond Street Hospital.

XLD, which affects only half a dozen children in the UK, leaves him feeling fatigued and unable to fight off infections.

His father Steven said: "It has been wonderful to see the huge smile on his face. To see him this excited has been such a pleasure."

easyJet pilot Captain Foster said: "We're delighted to have played a part in making Felix's - or Electroman's - wish a reality. It was a real pleasure to have him and Yael on board. We hope they had as much fun as we did!"

Britain First leaders banned for causing 'community tension'

MARCH: Paul Golding and Jayda Fransen from Britain First in Luton

TWO Britain First leaders have been banned from Luton town centre by a High Court injunction.

Paul Golding, the group's leader, and deputy leader Jayda Fransen are both banned from entering the town centre and Bury Park, unless it is to appear in court, for the next three years. The order, passed on Thursday, also bans them from directing other activists from the group to the area, or publishing images or films showing any member of the group inside the exclusion zone.

It also prevents the pair from entering any mosque or Islamic cultural centre in England and Wales without an invitation.

Assistant Chief Constable Mike Colbourne, of Bedfordshire Police, said the force applied for the order after a number of incidents where the party 'came into areas of Luton and caused community tensions'.

88% of People Recover From

Slipped Disc

Are you suffering from back pain, arm or leg pain, numbness, tingling, or weakness in your arms or legs? Then it's likely you're suffering from a Slipped DISC. That's when one of your spinal discs is bulging or herniated and causing these, sometimes severe, symptoms because of the effect the disc is having on your nerve system.

You may have already had this diagnosed on an MRI and thought that there is little that can be done about it and that's a major problem: bad information, because in the right hands a lot can be done for you.

To end the misery caused by slipped discs you must have the right information. Pay close attention because I'm going to destroy some important myths and give you the facts.

MYTH: Slipped discs will just "go away" with some rest.

FACT: If you are dealing with back pain, buttock pain or leg pain, then you must seek help from a slipped disc specialist immediately. Left untreated a slipped disc can lead to permanent nerve damage - and lifelong pain.

MYTH: Pain is the only problem associated with slipped discs.

FACT: In severe cases, slipped discs can lead to the inability to control your bowels, bladder and sexual potency - leading to embarrassing situations.

MYTH: You must take pain medications to deal with slipped discs.

FACT: Drugs like muscle relaxants, pain killers, narcotics, antidepressants, and anti-seizure medications have serious potential side-effects and do not cure slipped discs.

MYTH: "I must have done something wrong to cause my disc to slip."

FACT: Physical work or simply sitting at a desk for long periods can lead to slipped discs. Accidents and trauma can also be the culprits. Pregnancy can cause damage. A slipped disc can happen to anyone - including super-fit celebrities like Tiger Woods, Sylvester Stallone, and British Olympic medalist Ian Wynne.

MYTH: Stop exercising and get several weeks of bed rest to let the slipped disc recover...

FACT: Staying active can help to the slipped disc recover and prevent the pain getting worse. Staying inactive in bed could be the worst advice - based on a recent study in the Netherlands.

MYTH: Slipped discs require surgery.

FACT: NO! There's been a huge breakthrough in the treatment of slipped discs. It's a new procedure called Non-Surgical Re-Constructive Spinal Care. The excellent results from this treatment have been published in major medical journals. Success rates are up to 90%.

MYTH: "There's nothing anyone can really do. I'm just stuck with this for the rest of my life."

FACT: With the correct treatment from a healthcare professional who specialises in slipped discs, you can find relief from the core cause - and the symptoms.

MYTH: Getting slipped discs properly diagnosed is expensive.

FACT: Not true. The Atlas Wellness Centre in Bedfordshire is currently offering an initial consultation with one of their specialists for Just £49.

Peter Olsson
Spinal DISC Expert in Bedford.

Peter Olsson is one of the UK's leading spinal care experts. Peter (the clinical leader at Atlas Wellness Centre) and his team of fully-trained spinal care specialists have helped over 4,026 patients find relief from agonising slipped discs. He's one of the first professionals in the UK to use Non-Surgical Re-Constructive Spinal Care.

This procedure does not require a hospital stay and in most cases you'll be able to continue with your normal daily activities with little interruption. The focus is on finding - and correcting - the original cause of the slipped disc.

According to Olsson, "We use a combination of ultra-advanced technology, not found elsewhere in the region, for precisely diagnosing the cause of your slipped disc. This means superior long-term results for most people."

EXTREMISTS: (l-r) Mohammed Istiak Alamgir, Rajib Khan and Yousaf Bashir were found guilty this week

Terror trio facing jail for IS support

BY COURT REPORTER
editor@lsmmedia.co.uk

THREE extremists linked to hate preacher Anjem Choudary are facing jail for encouraging support for Islamic State at a Christian church hall.

Mohammed Istiak Alamgir, 37, Rajib Khan, 38, and Yousaf Bashir, 35, held a series of meetings at St Margaret's Methodist Church in Luton and in a marquee in one of their own back gardens.

They were part of the Luton chapter of banned terror organisation Al-Muhajiroun, led by hate preacher Choudary, the Old Bailey heard. The trial and conviction of Choudary for inviting support for ISIS could not be reported until the conclusion of the trial of Alamgir, Khan and Bashir on Tuesday when they were found guilty.

Their invitation-only gatherings in June and July last year – the months of Ramadan – attracted up to 100 people, including very young children, and featured speeches calling for gay people to be thrown off buildings.

One was held on the anniversary of the 7/7 bombings.

The group were infiltrated by an undercover officer, known only as 'Kamal', who over 20 months formed a close relationship with the defendants.

He visited their homes as well as covertly recorded private meetings.

The first speech took place at St Margaret's on June 29 last year, where Alamgir celebrated the year since IS declared the caliphate.

Other speeches were delivered in a marquee where they hung a black banner with words picked out in white reading 'Khalifa 2014, dawn of a new era' – believed to refer to the date IS announced their 'Caliphate'.

Second man charged over dad-of-three's death

OFFICERS investigating the death of a 'gentle giant' at a campsite in Bedfordshire have charged a second man with murder.

Christopher McCarthy, 21, of Slapton Road, Little

Billington, appeared at Luton Magistrates' Court on Thursday in connection with the death of 43-year-old Patrick Maloney in Toddbury Farm, Little Billington, on August 2. Mr McCarthy is due back before the court on Monday.

A post-mortem examination revealed Mr Maloney died as a result of multiple crushing injuries.

A 24-year-old man also charged with murder has been remanded by magistrates pending a further appearance. A 42-year-old woman also arrested on suspicion of murder is currently on bail until September 14.

Mr & Mrs Essex of Runfold Ave, Luton chose Kingsbourne Windows to replace their draughty old windows & doors after a high recommendation from their neighbours.

Mr Essex explains "the installation we saw was superbly fitted by their own quality fitters, and the cost for us was realistic for 'A' rated products. Now beautifully completed by Dave and Matt we would certainly recommend the personal service you get from Kingsbourne Windows to all our family and friends".

Joy as students join the 'A' team

BY KATY HALLAM
editor@lsnmedia.co.uk

THE moment students in Luton had been waiting for finally arrived this week as they ripped open brown paper envelopes to reveal their A level results.

Luton Sixth Form College (LSFC) celebrated one of its best A level results days in years with a 97.1 per cent pass rate for A levels and 99.1 per cent for B-Techs, improving from 96.9 per cent and 97.7 per cent respectively from 2015.

One of those cele-

SURPRISE SURPRISE: Students picked up their results at Luton Sixth Form on Thursday morning

brating was Sibongile Gara, who achieved straight A's in Biology, Chemistry and Maths along with an A* in her Extended Project Qualification to secure her place at St George's University of London to study medicine.

She said: "I prayed before each exam that it would be enough and I'm just really happy that it was."

Barnfield College achieved a 100 per cent pass rate in the subjects of art, fashion, business, carpentry, plumbing, electrical installation, engineering, music and sport.

Principal Tim Eyton-Jones said: "We are very proud of our students."

"Their grades are a credit to them, their families and the staff at Barnfield College, and we wish them every success for the future." More results at luton-dunstable.co.uk

Surgery closures mean 5,600 need a new GP

TWO doctor's surgeries are due to shut their doors - meaning 5,600 people will have to find a new GP.

Whipperley Medical Centre and Moakes Medical Centre, which cater for 2,880 and 2,718 people respectively, will close following the expiration of their contracts in January.

On why the two surgeries are closing, a spokeswoman for Luton Clinical Commissioning Group said: "Responses from the recent consultation were analysed independently and the results were jointly considered by Luton CCG and NHS England.

"This included an impact assessment which identified future population growth, local GP practice development plans, and analysis of practices' premises."

DOZY PARKERS

Paving mad

IF there's nowhere left to park, then just go for it and park in the middle of the pavement.

Most people would dismiss that thought process - but clearly not this driver who plonked their vehicle across the pavement at the junction of Truro Gardens and Riddy Lane.

OUR latest Read All Over star is journalism student Phoebe Randlesome, who came into the office to lend us a hand this week.

She's currently on summer holidays from her studies at the University of Sheffield, but like a true newshound just couldn't sit back all summer without her dose of news. She's been delving into zombie knives, reviewing museums and speaking to students celebrating their A level results.

Another successful Mela

LUTON Mela was back a fortnight ago for its 16th edition.

The event was a success, as usual, and saw a number of national and international performers take to the stage with over 35,000 people in attendance over the weekend.

LUTON Mela returned for its 16th year and was held on 6th and 7th August 2016 in Wardown Park.

More than 35,000 people attended the event over the weekend, with star studded performances on the main stage including Dance Flavourz Britain's Got Talent Semi-Finalists, International star Roach Killa, Juggy D, Sahara, to name a few.

The weekend had something to suit everyone's taste of music but for those who wanted something different there was an array of stalls, a kids zone which had the kids and adults loving the arts and crafts that were on offer and a magic show that left the audience mesmerised.

We cannot forget about the mouth-watering food that was on display from south Asian continents - something that left the crowd wanting more.

The unique addition to the event was Sonia Sabri Company who offered dance workshops, Arts Calligraphy workshops and performances which left the audiences speechless.

The Mela, which is every held every year, is managed and organised by volunteers from the community without who this would not be possible. They give up their free time to make sure the event is a success.

We are also highly thankful to both local and national company's including Lebara Mobile, The Mail Luton, Luton Town Football Club, Central Bedfordshire College, London Luton Airport Limited, AP Film Production.

Both local and national media who supported the event included B4U, Punjab 2000, and BBC 3 Counties Radio.

As part of the finale at the Mela to mark the end to the 16th year we had electrifying performances by the Dancers, Beat Alliance Dhol drummers along with flame throwers and stage pyros.

The audiences were left dazzled with the quality of the finale with a lot of them saying they wanted more and leaving an everlasting impression.

Luton was also crowned the best Mela in the UK at the UK Bhangra Awards in November 2015 and we are waiting to see if we can top that this year and be crowned again.

For 2017 we will start planning from September. We will definitely be bringing something new and exciting for the Mela, a few surprises are planned. Our plans are to keep the event a free family event in years to come.

Watch this space for further information, visit our website.lutonmela.co.uk and follow us on all our social media sites.

Your Luton Letters

Hugely infuriating

I WRITE to you with regards to the article in the August 14 Luton on Sunday, covering the late night car group meet-ups.

Reading Mr Patel's comments of 'sometimes there is noise - it's a preferable route to head down instead of drinking or taking drugs', 'cruising is not a crime' and 'we were all young once' is hugely infuriating.

If this was a case of people meeting up chatting and admiring cars I doubt many people would mind, however this is not what they are doing the majority of the time.

I live in Sundon Park about half a mile away from where these meet-ups occur and I am regularly woken on Sunday nights by the sound of cars performing burnouts and drag racing.

This often goes on until 1.30am and more often it is happening Fridays and Saturdays on top of the already regular Sundays.

I know what the cars are doing as I have, on several occasions driven over to them and watched what is clearly anti-social behaviour at best.

A few weeks ago several people were arrested and cars impounded as the street racing moved into Toddington Road (just drive down this road you can see tyre marks running from Sedgewick Road right up to a speed camera), a driver lost control and crashed. Why was this not reported?

Have you taken a trip to the location they are 'meeting up'? I don't think it is a coincidence that the road is a clear 250 metres of road, perfect for racing.

Your article is very one sided and plays these people out as victims. I suggest a member of your team spends some time speaking to the people living in the surrounding areas, and the night security guards in the industrial estate. Or perhaps some investigation of your own instead of wasting space on what is basically an opinion piece.

Dan Caswell
By email

A matter of time

I HAVE just read your article about the nuisance cars on Sedgewick Road and would like to make the following comments.

This has been going on for two years and the police have had hundreds of complaints about the noise during this time, and the police have done nothing.

The 'car enthusiasts' have shown complete contempt to the police and have even painted a start and finish line across the road in Sedgewick Road, and spray painted the car lap times on fences nearby.

The cars are often driven dangerously by exceeding the speed limit along Toddington Road and racing and drifting around corners in Sedgewick Road. I am sure if the police had speed cameras at the top of Toddington Road they would catch several of these irresponsible drivers exceeding the speed limit.

It is only a matter of time until there is a bad accident and someone gets seriously injured or killed.

Are these cars properly insured and have their insurance companies been informed about engine modifications? Maybe the police could stop the cars and check with their insurance companies?

Have the police stopped these cars and checked if the tyres are legal? After these meetings there are often large amounts of tyre rubber left on the road.

Mr Patel claims that 'there is sometimes noise'. Well the truth is that the noise starts at around 9pm and often goes on non-stop until after midnight. The noise is horrendous.

They should realise that some people have to work the next day and should show a bit of respect to the local neighbourhood.

The cars have modified engines and sound like Formula One racing cars, and are often revved up until they go bang. If poor old Nakul Patel wants somewhere to meet each week and have 'fun', why doesn't he have his meet outside his own house and race up and down his road, annoying his neighbours.

Or is he one of these NIMBYs?

Royal pardon

SO the Royals are coming to Luton?

How lovely for them! Excuse me if I make an appointment literally anywhere else in the country on that day.

I do hope that they enjoy their visit, and send a bit of much-needed cash our council's way while they are at it.

Or perhaps the promise of their posh faces is all it will take to give our economy a much-needed boost.

APPEAL: The cat died despite the best efforts of vets

Death of moggy sparks appeal

AN appeal has been launched after a cat that had been shot in the head was found severely emaciated under a bush.

Inspectors are trying to trace the owner/s of the white female semi-longhair cat, thought to be around 10 years old, after it was discovered collapsed on August 6 in Hartley Road, Luton, and died the next day.

Anyone who recognises the cat can call the RSPCA on 0300 123 8018.

Sex offences rising in county's schools

BY KATY HALLAM
editor@lsmmedia.co.uk

A CHARITY has called for mandatory 'sexting' and relationship lessons after it was revealed reports of sexual offences at schools in Bedfordshire have more than doubled in four years.

There have been 21 reports of alleged sexual offences in the county's schools since 2011/12, when four incidents were passed on to the police.

In 2012/13 another four offences were reported but that number jumped to nine in 2014/15.

The shocking figures were revealed after a Freedom of Information request to Bedfordshire Police by children's charity Plan International UK, who say schools are failing pupils.

The charity's head of girls' rights Kerry Smith said: "Quality sex and relationships education helps young people to develop healthy attitudes towards sex and relationships while helping to tackle inappropriate and aggressive sexual behaviour.

"Young people need education about the realities of life and relationships, including consent."

Incidents included abuse of a position of trust of a sexual nature, sexual activity with a child and sexual assault.

Nationally, reports of sexual offences in schools have more than doubled in four years to 1,955 in 2014/15.

LoS contacted Bedfordshire Police for a comment but we did not receive it before our deadline.

ROADSHOW comes to town

Wednesday 24th August, 10:30am - 2:00pm

and sovereigns

Breitling - up to £740 paid

Dinky Cars

Scrap Gold

Any amber & Jewellery

THE EAST MIDLANDS ANTIQUES ROADSHOW arrives in Luton and offers local people the unique opportunity to come along and have a free valuation of any item and possibly be made a firm spot cash offer without any obligation.

Mr Franks recalls an instance, the last time East Midlands Antiques were in the area, when a couple came along with a selection of old broken and incomplete rings, a few items of unusual jewellery and an old broke, gentleman's wristwatch, expecting only a small amount and they were totally amazed to receive over £2,000. Another astonishing story was when a crystal vessel, estimated at just £100-£200 was sold for £220,000.

So why not take this chance to search through your attic, drawers and cupboards, to see if you could also be sitting on a fortune. Don't be afraid or embarrassed. You will find East Midlands Antiques' representatives most helpful, courteous and friendly. There is no obligation to sell, so if you just require a free valuation, no problem.

All transactions are strictly cash.

So pop along and see us at The Leaside Hotel. Mr Franks said the reasons for choosing the area are numerous. Many valuable articles were found in the last visit to the area. For instance, on one occasion this year, a Rolex, valued at £2,000-£3,000 fetched a staggering £48,000. The hotel is well known to local residents and is well placed with plenty of car parking available. So on the Wednesday 24th August you have the chance to visit the hotel and see our accredited buyers and valuers absolutely free. Mr Franks has over 20 years experience of professional valuations and now his expertise is available at no cost to you, specialising in oil paintings, water-colours and many other articles. Medals, decorations and orders are one of the most collectable items and East Midlands Antiques has a waiting list of collectors and customers willing to pay for these articles.

Have you watched the BBC programmes Flog It or The Antiques Roadshow?

Our format is exactly the same but we offer the chance to sell without the uncertainty and commission to the Auction House and if you are unsuccessful at auction there may still be charges to pay. East Midlands Antiques realise that there are some very unusual items that require the exposure of a major auction house and we would be pleased to advise in such cases. However, many items do not warrant this and East Midlands Antiques will offer accordingly. Come and try the friendly and discreet service we have provided for many other people like yourselves over the years.

'Let's unite with a round of golf'

BY NICK SMITH

nick.smith@lutononsunday.co.uk

BELFAST'S top cop visited Luton on an ambassadorial trip this week and his tip for improving interaction between the police and communities was... golf.

Chief Superintendent and Police Commander for Belfast Chris Nobles - who is also chairman of the Police Service of Northern Ireland Golf Club - put the sporting idea forward as he visited members of the town's Sikh community on Wednesday.

He said: "I'm here both in my role as a police officer and as chairman of the Police Service of Northern Ireland Golf Club, to work out how we can better utilise golf to interact with communities."

C.Supt Nobles visited Luton's Guru Nanak Gurdwara on his trip, also stopping at a function at the Auction House with a number of dignitaries, including Mayor of Luton Tahir Khan.

The meeting follows the appointment of Bedfordshire Police's Chief Constable Jon Boucher to a role leading Operation Kenova in

VISITOR: Belfast Chief Superintendent and Police Commander Chris Nobles with mayor of Luton Tahir Khan during the event

Northern Ireland, looking into a number of activities carried out by an alleged British Army agent.

As CC Boucher was unable to attend, Bedfordshire's Police and Crime Commissioner Kathryn Holloway went on behalf of the force.

She said: "I'm here to help establish a relationship between the two forces going forward. As it's based around a historic event during The Troubles, which was a time of much division, I think it's important to use an event like this to build bridges going forward."

Avtar Singh, one of the organisers and hosts of the meeting said: "He was really impressed by the harmony in the town and said it wasn't often you saw that elsewhere."

"It's something we need to keep working on in order for the town to keep progressing."

Airport drop-off fees are 'sky high'

BY JAMES AVERILL
editor@lsmmedia.co.uk

LUTON Airport has been hit by criticism for the cost of dropping off and picking up passengers at the terminal - in the same week it came second highest in the UK for delayed flights.

Research by the RAC shows if you want to be able to leave your car to greet someone at arrivals, then Luton Airport is the most expensive for pick-ups - the minimum charge is a staggering £7 for up to 40 minutes. It also ranks joint top with Stansted for the price of dropping people off at £3 for 10 minutes.

The fees were slammed by the RAC, which said: "Motorists need to be aware of the sky-high charges."

A Luton Airport spokesperson said: "The airport offers a two hours free parking in the long-stay car park and 15 minutes free in the mid-term car park, as well as the paid for option for drivers wishing to drop off and pick up outside the terminal."

The airport also faced criticism over delays.

Data from aviation authorities and analysed by the BBC showed the average delay from January 2015 to March this year was 15 minutes, only beaten by Gatwick.

The spokesperson added: "The over-riding causes were airspace restrictions and numerous air traffic control strikes across Europe that impacted airlines' schedules."

STANDING UP: Members of the vigil show their support

Peace vigil shows Kashmir solidarity

LUTON residents met to show their 'solidarity' with the people of Kashmir during its conflict.

Fifty people attended the vigil outside Town Hall on Wednesday.

Indian and Pakistan have fought over the territory since 1947.

Lewsey ward councillor Aslam Khan told Luton on Sunday: "This is a forgotten conflict. We want to highlight the injustices of innocent people dying."

How police got

nick.smith@lutononsunday.co.uk

A MARQUEE in a suburban back garden and a Methodist Church: not places you might expect to hear some of the most vile hate preaching this county has encountered.

But this week, three men described as being the 'Luton arm' of terror group Al-Muhajiroun were found guilty of encouraging support for ISIS after preaching to between 70-100 people, including young children, at a time.

Mohammed Istiak Alamgir, 37, Rajib Khan, 38, and Yousaf Bashir, 35, held a series of meetings at St Margaret's Methodist Church in Luton, and in a marquee in one of their own gardens.

You can read the full court report on page 7 of this newspaper.

Khan is the brother of Junead Khan, 25, jailed in May for a terrorist plot to kill US military personnel outside a UK air base, while a beheading video was found on a mobile phone belonging to Alamgir.

The three extremists, who have links to radical Islamist preacher Anjem Choudhary, were found guilty of encouraging support for a proscribed organisation at the Old Bailey on Tuesday.

RADICAL: Police used undercover tactics to infiltrate the group

Their invitation-only gatherings in June and July last year – the months of Ramadan – featured speeches calling for gay people to be thrown off buildings and encouraging audience members to travel to Syria.

Luton on Sunday was invited to a press briefing at Scotland Yard last month, but due to the sensitive nature of the trial and how it linked to another court case concerning Choudhary, we have not been able to report any details until now.

This week's verdicts are the result of months of work by Bedfordshire Police and the Met, who used a range of tactics to gather evidence for the operation.

Metropolitan Police Commander Dean Hayden led the meeting at Scotland Yard on July 26, speaking about the difficulty of piecing together evidence.

Cmdr Hayden said: "We had to create a timeline to show what these people were about."

"We had a guy undercover in Luton for 20 months in order to get five arrests."

"Speeches like theirs inspire the terrorists of tomorrow and I am immensely pleased with the excellent work of my officers and Bedfordshire Police, which ensured the conviction of these men.

TERROR TRIAL: The Luton extremists held one of their meetings in a marquee

"That it was used to radicalise children is most disturbing and it is particularly important that we tackle this."

Officers had to look back across 20 years of evidence of evidence to secure convictions. In December 2015, officers from Beds Police and the Met's Counter Terrorism Command swooped on the men at their home addresses. They seized over 1,500 exhibits, including more than 270 digital devices.

From these, they recovered over 500 images and videos, including: video recordings of extremist speeches; photos of Khan, Alamgir and others posing with notorious hate preacher Omar Bakri Muhammed.

The conviction of the five men has been greeted with relief from Muslim communities across the country.

Imam Irfan Chishti MBE, who has worked in Luton on community cohesion initiatives said: "This conviction demonstrates the influence of hateful views together with the power they had over people by encouraging them not to think for themselves."

"We have to remain vigilant of these so-called religious figures that look to fill young minds with poison."

Assistant Chief Constable Jeff Hill from the Eastern Chiltern Terrorism Intelligence Unit, said: "Luton is a fantastic town with great diversity and strong communities, however we are aware there are elements with extreme views who prey on the vulnerable." Anyone with concerns about suspicious activity should call the Anti Terrorist Hotline on 0800 789 321.

on the go

Fab films in stunning surroundings

AS IF film effects aren't spectacular enough to grab your attention - why not try watching them in the stunning gardens of the Luton Hoo estate? The venue's Open Air Cinema season is about to get underway, and there are some old classics, as well as new favourites, to sit down and watch with friends or family. The festivities begin with a showing of Pretty Woman on Wednesday August 24, a rom com that personifies the 1990s, while The Goonies gang will invite you on their treasure hunt on the following evening. Start the weekend with a Friday night showing of Pitch Perfect on August 26, while Sunday August 27 will give you the opportunity to watch a galaxy far, far away as Han Solo, Princess Leia and Luke Skywalker return in Star Wars: The Force Awakens. Sunday's showing of Dirty Dancing is already sold out, although limited tickets remain for a repeat showing on Monday August 29. And the month ends with arguably the greatest Bond film of all time - as Sean Connery stars in Goldfinger. Each evening runs from 6.30pm until 10.30pm, meaning you can enjoy these iconic flicks under the stars by the South Lake on the 1,065 acre estate. You can book tickets, which cost £13, by going online and visiting www.sundowncinema.co.uk

OUT & ABOUT

Get your sleeves rolled up for art

AWEARNESS
SEPTEMBER

ART really will be imitating life in Luton as residents are given the chance to star in a major artwork about life in the town.

Luton Culture - which organises cultural and leisure events across the town - is converting a former disused hat factory in Bute Street into a public art space next month and giving people the chance to work with internationally renowned artist, Susan A. Barnett. She will be working alongside the international photographic group The AWEARNESS project to create a collection of photographs that record the ever-changing messages found on the back of t-shirts.

The team are inviting the people of Luton to design their own statement t-shirts - and be photographed wearing them - with a selection of the final submissions printed onto t-shirts and displayed in The Storefront.

Photographs of people wearing their t-shirts will finally be projected onto the wall in the Luton Cultural Quarter for the public to view and engage with.

A spokesman for Luton Culture said: "AWEARNESS Luton aims to create a diverse and fascinating mosaic of opinions and attitudes in and about Luton.

"These non-traditional portraits reveal the wearer's hopes, beliefs, affiliations and personal mantras."

The project is open to all and can include any message or image that conveys a thought, feeling, expression or statement about the town. Participants are encouraged to ask questions and express personal opinions - good and bad.

They could also answer questions including: What do you think of Luton? What is the message about Luton you'd want to share with the world? What's an honest expression about Luton? Why are you here in Luton?

The AWEARNESS project is part of the As You Change, So Do I programme - led by Luton Culture in collaboration with the Department Lounge - which is designed to generate involvement, participation and debate in Luton. Anyone wanting to take part can download a submission form from www.lutonculture.com/asyouchange.

Completed forms must be emailed to asyouchange@lutonculture.com or posted to AWEARNESS Luton, The Hat Factory, 65-67 Bute Street, Luton, LU1 2EY or handed in to the Box Office at The Hat Factory. Contact details must be included in the applicant wants to take part in the photography series.

Submissions for the launch weekend must be submitted by September 15.

The t-shirts will go on show on September 29 and participants will be photographed over the launch weekend and also a date in November.

Go and get that body moving

IF YOU'VE been enjoying one or two barbecues - then Soccerobics could be a fun way to get back into shape.

Taking place at the UK Centre for Carnival Arts, work out to the melodic sound of calypso and Indian drums.

Each session costs £4. You can turn up on the evening or call 01582 437 100 for more information on the classes - which take place every Monday from 7-8pm.

MUSIC

Rediscover the music of the 80s

ONE of Luton's most popular pubs is inviting you all to rediscover the 1980s.

The George II, in Bute Street, is hosting a Summer 80s Special, with Dark Night DJs dedicating the evening to songs from what organisers fondly describe as 'the best decade for music'.

So look forward to a host of hits from acts including Adam Ant, Stevie Wonder, David Bowie, The Clash, Spandau

Ballet and many more.

If you feel like it, you could even pop on a Cosby sweater or some hooped earrings, just to get yourself in the mood!

The music begins at 9pm. You have to be 18 to get in, but admission is free.

POETRY

The spoken word in its rawest form

SOUL FOOD POETRY
 LIBRARY THEATRE
 AUGUST 27

THE SPOKEN word will be celebrated in all its glory in a new event showcasing the best of poetry right here in Luton.

Soul Food Poetry is taking up the mantle previously left by X Marks The Spot, which featured seven spoken word artists and three musicians showcasing their ability to use language to explore 'thought provoking concepts' and 'challenging ideas'.

The new event is continuing in much the same vein, with one performer being Mighty Poet, who also organises the evening.

He said: "It's an amazing show. The subjects touched upon range from love, to politics, to religion and race.

"It's really about whatever is on someone's mind. The whole point is to have an outlet and a release for a message for whatever is on the artist's mind.

"And they have 10 to 15 minutes to put that message across. It's a very raw and natural performance, and we like it to have that feel of being quite organic."

When we first spoke to Mighty Poet back in April, he was hoping to mark the start of a 'poetry revolution' in the town.

Hailing from Luton, but working in London, Mighty Poet has seen the success of similar shows in the capital, and wanted to bring something similar back to his home town.

He said: "I want to bring an alternative night out where you are not having to go clubbing and it's more a conscious thing where people come to listen to others and hopefully it resonates with them.

"I have seen it in London and I am always performing there so I'm trying to bring that sort of buzz to Luton.

"I hadn't seen much of it in Luton, and I wanted to bring a vibrant live scene here. It's worked in London, so why can't it work here?"

It certainly seems to be working, as the X Marks the Spot events seemed to prove quite popular.

Now Mighty Poet is hoping that the new 'Soul Food Poetry' format will carry on that success.

The show takes place at the Luton Library Theatre next Sunday (August 27), with doors opening at 7.15pm.

Tickets cost £10, and the event usually sells out, so don't hang about if you want to attend. You can purchase your ticket by visiting www.soulfoodpoetry.com

So what would Mighty Poet say to anyone who has never been to an evening dedicated to the spoken word?

"Just please come along and find out for yourself," he adds.

"If you speak to anyone who has been they will tell you how great it is. But come along and see it for yourself."

What's hot in Luton

HEAD along to the View Café at Dunstable Downs on Saturday for a relaxing morning of crafting and gentle conversation - all against a stunning backdrop. This knit and stitch session will allow you to try your hand with the cross stitch needle. All are welcome, beginners and experts alike! The event takes place at the café, which is at the Chilterns Gateway Centre, from 10am until noon. Admission to the event is free. Book by calling 01582 500 920.

TIME is running out to enjoy the LEGO workshops at Stockwood Discovery Centre. Build castle walls and your own dragon! Sessions take place at 10.15am, 11.45am, 1.45pm and 3.15pm every Monday, Wednesday and Thursday until September 1. Tickets cost £10. Call 01582 548 600 to book.

GUITAR maestro Marius Ptas brings together some of the area's best talent for a party night of jazz funk and unexpected twists at The Bear Club. The show takes place on Friday, with doors opening at 7pm and the music beginning at 8.30pm. Tickets cost £6 from the-bear.club

George and Ringo's first bolthole

The Beatles left Liverpool for the capital in 1963 having just scored their first number one hit Please Please Me - but the four were so fabulous that, besieged by fans, they soon became too famous for hotels.

As Beatlemania really kicked in at the end of the year, manager Brian Epstein suggested George and Ringo should move into his apartment block, and the two bandmates set up a bachelor pad in an apartment at Whaddon House in a small, private street near Harrods.

The block witnessed some legendary parties, most memorably one star-studded bash which saw all four Beatles in attendance along with Mick Jagger, Keith Richards and Judy Garland. The celebrations moved to the roof of the building where a makeshift ballroom - complete with red carpet - was set up in a marquee.

They were robbed in 1964 with burglars making off with cufflinks, souvenirs and cash. And with a world tour looming and aspirations of cracking America a year later, Whaddon House was also where The Beatles famously met before heading to Buckingham Palace to receive their MBEs from the Queen.

Soon afterwards, George moved to Esher and Ringo headed to Marylebone.

A three-bedroom lateral apartment in the block is now on the market for £3.5m.

It's been given a glitzy makeover of late, and boasts an open-plan reception and kitchen with under-lit and mirrored bar area, and decked balcony through sliding glass double doors. The master bedroom has an en-suite, with its own dressing room.

Does it have a presidential suite?

One of Hillary Clinton's less pressing problems is what to call husband Bill should she make White House history - as former presidents are still known as Mr President.

Her hubby has helped raise £2bn for good causes with his eponymous foundation in New York since leaving office, but before polling day in November he might have to decide whether to give up this work during his wife's term in office, just like Michelle Obama and Hillary did when they moved to Washington with their partners.

Clinton isn't afraid to challenge the status quo - as a Rhodes scholar at Oxford University in 1968, he opposed the war, helping to arrange a 'teach-in' in London as well as a demonstration outside the US embassy and has since famously admitted to at least one embarrassing experience while studying in the city - he smoked marijuana (although supposedly didn't inhale).

Clinton shared a house at 46 Leckford Road in Oxford where, rather ironically, infamous drug smuggler Howard Marks later lived during the early 1970s, while on bail. The Welsh cannabis smuggler-turned-author, who achieved notoriety through high-profile court cases, died earlier this year, after campaigning publicly for changes in drugs legislation.

Now's your chance to live in the same house as the 42nd President of the United States because the four-bedroom end of terrace house is available to rent, furnished for £4,000 a month.

The bohemian-styled character property has an open-plan kitchen/dining room/conservatory, with working fireplaces as well as a large garden with fish pond and summer house.

A Hollywood giant's farm

Best known as a multi-married film star with extravagant jewellery, Elizabeth Taylor was tabloid fodder for her seesawing weight and battles with addiction. But the Oscar-winning actress also had a stint as a politician's wife and owner of a huge cattle farm.

Taylor, who died age 79 in 2011, got hitched to conservative politician John Warner after her second divorce from Richard Burton in 1976; they hit it off on a blind date at the White House during a visit from the Queen and married five months later.

Taylor became a political wife, campaigning hard to get her husband elected to the Senate by attending endless charity benefits, shaking hundreds of hands, and speaking at public functions. "It was so boring. That's why I put on so much weight," she confessed.

The farm reminded her of growing up in England and at first she was happy at being 'put out to pasture as the wife of a country squire', and riding horses. However, Taylor decided to resume her career in 1982 and go back to Broadway. They were divorced the same year and Warner sold the 400-acre Atoka Farm in 1994.

The estate, near Middleburg, Virginia, has just been sold again for $8.17m. Dating from 1860, it has five bedrooms on three levels with an indoor pool and tennis court.

Its numerous barns are thought to have been built by an early owner, Joshua Hoge, a Quaker who helped get slaves to safety after the Civil War.

Donald's first dip into the mansion market

In what's been described as the worst campaign week for any presidential candidate in living memory – Donald Trump recently insulted the parents of a fallen war hero, claimed that Russia wouldn't invade Ukraine (although it has already), joked at a campaign event about receiving a Purple Heart, and ordered a crying baby out of a rally.

The bullish billionaire's campaign is starting to look a bit shaky, but he certainly knows what he's doing when it comes to bricks and mortar and has collected a formidable property portfolio.

Trump could take his pick of many opulent digs if he doesn't get the keys to the White House. His main home is a glitzy three-level £100m penthouse at Trump Tower on New York's Fifth Avenue. He's also got a 60-room mansion in Bedford, New York, a home with vineyard and winery on 2,000 acres in Virginia, and a six-bedroom pad in Beverly Hills, along with the whopping Mar-A-Lago mansion with 100 rooms.

Trump and first wife Ivana bought his starter mansion, a 5.8-acre home on a peninsula in Greenwich for $4m in 1982. When they divorced in 1991, she won the mansion in the property settlement and sold it later for $15m.

It has eight bedrooms, as well as a cinema, tennis courts, pool, putting green, a private boat dock, and the current owners have even knocked $9m off the home's asking price.

But if that's still too steep for a Trump fan, his modest six-bed boyhood home in Queens, New York, is up for sale at $1.65m.

The island where Gareth proposed

Gareth Bale led a European Championship campaign that will go down in Welsh football history, scoring three times before his team lost to Portugal in the semi-finals.

It was a decade since the Real Madrid star had made his senior international debut in 2006, becoming the youngest player to represent the nation. He's now in the superstar league, pocketing about £290,000 a week from the club as well as a £500,000 bonus after they won the Champions League in May.

Three years ago Bale cashed in on growing global fame after trademarking his goal celebration and shirt number, the 'Eleven of Hearts' in a move expected to net the Welshman more than £10m a year.

And he wore his heart on his sleeve last month by popping the question to partner, childhood sweetheart Emma Rhys-Jones, on a private Mediterranean island before celebrating with a golf tour in Scotland and Wales.

Bale was thought to have paid www.vladi-private-islands.de more than £400,000 to rent the luxury retreat of Tagomago, a five-minute boat ride from Ibiza. The couple stayed in a five double-bedroom villa on the private island, which comes with its own lighthouse.

He also forked out for full board and round-the-clock service from two chefs, a personal butler, two maids, boat captain, gardener and mechanic.

If you still haven't booked a summer getaway, the 98-acre paradise costs between £84,000 and £134,000 a week for the villa which has a 60ft swimming pool, outdoor whirlpool, steam bath and sauna, as well as rooftop space to watch the sunset.

CENTRAL BEDFORDSHIRE COUNCIL (VICARAGE ROAD, SILSOE) (TEMPORARY PROHIBITION OF TRAFFIC) ORDER 2016

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that Central Bedfordshire Council intends not less than seven days from the date of this Notice to make an Order the effect of which will be to prohibit any vehicle, except a vehicle being used for fire, police or ambulance purposes in an emergency, from proceeding along that length of Vicarage Road, Silsoe which extends from junction with West End Road to Church Road.

This temporary closure is required to enable gas connection work to take place and shall apply to such extent as may from time to time be indicated by the appropriate traffic signs. Where possible access will be maintained to property and premises but may be restricted from time to time according to local signing.

It is expected that the works will take place over ONE DAY on Monday 5th September 2016 from 8.30am to 6pm. The road will be closed at all times during this period. Specific dates will be advertised locally closer to the time.

The alternative route is via heading south on Vicarage Road toward Church Road, turn left onto Church Road, turn right onto High Street and turn right onto West End Road.

The Order will come into operation on 5th September 2016 for a period of twelve months or until the proposed works have been completed, as detailed above, whichever is the earlier.

For further information please contact Simon Large – Mervyn Lambert, tel. 01953 688211.

Central Bedfordshire Education Appeals Panels - seeking new appeals panel members

We are looking for additional people to join independent education appeals panels in Central Bedfordshire. If you have an interest in education and feel able to offer some time on an occasional basis, we would be interested to hear from you.

Each panel is made up of three people who are independent of the Local Education Authority. The panel hears admissions appeals against Council decisions not to admit a child to a particular school, exclusion reviews against decisions by schools not to reinstate pupils who have been excluded, and appeals for children to receive free school transport. The work requires the ability to listen, to ask incisive questions and to reach decisions based on facts rather than emotion. Panel meetings are held during business hours.

Applications are invited from people of all backgrounds, including people with no involvement in the delivery of education as well as people with teaching experience or who have been employed by a school or have experience of being a school governor.

Training will be provided for new panel members so you are equipped to attend hearings, but you are also supported by a Clerk at all hearings who provides legal and procedural advice. The work is unpaid but travel expenses are provided.

If you are interested in becoming a Panel member, please contact Mel Peaston, Committee Services Manager at Central Bedfordshire Council on 0300 300 6076 for an application form and more information. Alternatively, please send an email to mel.peaston@centralbedfordshire.gov.uk.

THE BOROUGH OF LUTON (PROHIBITION AND RESTRICTION OF WAITING AND LOADING) (CONSOLIDATION) (AMENDMENT NO.78) ORDER 2016

NOTICE is hereby given that on 15th August 2016 Luton Borough Council, the Highway Authority for the said Borough, made the above Order under the relevant provisions of the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 (as amended).

The Order will come into effect on Monday 5th September 2016

The Order:-

1. Introduces No Waiting at Any Time restrictions on the odd numbered side from a point 1m south of the boundary of No's 123/125 Havelock Road to its junction with Wensleydale excluding the parking bay outside No's 125/127 Havelock Road.

Any person wishing to question the validity of the Orders or of any provision contained in them on the grounds that they are not within the powers contained in the above Act or any requirement of that Act or any regulation made under it has not been complied with in relation to the Orders, may, within six weeks of the date on which the Orders were made, apply to the High Court for this purpose.

Fresh look for new Fiorino

BY CHRIS RUSSON

IT was the van that established a new segment in the commercial vehicle market and now the Fiat Fiorino has been updated to make it even more user-friendly.

The new Fiorino retains the compact dimensions that make it nimble in cities, agile in traffic and easy to park, without sacrificing any of its remarkable load capacity.

The new model introduces some modern design touches inside and out, with new features that deliver top class performance, low running costs and good levels of comfort and functionality.

In terms of style, the front bumper has been completely redesigned in line with the rest of the Fiat van range while retaining the characteristic high-mounted headlamps.

New 15-inch wheel covers and 15-inch, diamond finish, burnished alloy wheels completes the external revisions.

The new Fiorino retains its squared-off load compartment accessible through large rear doors that open to 180 degrees.

The door handles can be approached from either side and opened with minimal effort.

Functional options include a folding, retractable passenger seat which can be used as a desk or folded flat to carry objects of up to 2.5 metres in length.

The passenger compartment has also been revised to make it more comfortable and ergonomic.

A redesigned steering wheel is available with remote stereo controls and leather trim.

The instruments cluster gets new graphics with permanent backlighting and a new, more functional storage compartment.

A new five-inch colour touch-screen infotainment system is also offered for the first time, with Bluetooth, USB/AUX port and available satellite navigation and DAB radio.

The line-up of engines - all Euro 6 - features two turbo-diesel 1.3-litre Multijet II engines as well as a 77hp 1.4-litre petrol unit.

A new EcoJet version employs additional fuel-saving technologies such as start/stop, a 'smart' alternator and a variable displacement oil pump.

The latest Fiorino has all the safety systems of its predecessor, including ABS with EBD, ESC complete with traction a hill start assist functions as standard.

Parking sensors and front passenger and side airbags are available as options.

The new Fiorino is available in cargo and combi body styles and is priced from £11,315, excluding VAT.

COVERCAR

DS 3 Cabrio 1.6 BlueHDi Prestige

Take a look inside. . .

BY ROBIN ROBERTS

DOES soft-top or hardtop move you? Ok, how about a sort of between-Brexit model we'll call a Cabrio. DS parent Citroen has always taken a walk along the wild side with its models and styling so the Cabrio is entirely natural.

What's not natural is a wide range which puts other makers to shame and means the DS 3 Cabrio buyer has almost as much choice as the DS 3 hardtop chooser.

Essentially there are six models with petrol or diesel engines but only one automatic version and priced from about £16,300 to £24,800. Our Prestige sits mid-range with its low emissions turbo-diesel BlueHDi engine.

There is a good spread of pulling power from the 1,600cc engine and so long as you wisely use the six gears it moves along briskly once you are underway.

The clutch has a surprisingly long travel but the lever is satisfyingly direct, underfoot the brakes had strong power but lacked as much progressive feel as I would like.

Behind the powered steering wheel the DS 3 responded with a little deadness but its turning circle was good for town and country use and it was very steady at motorway speed.

Secondary controls were scattered about the fascia and some of the dials were not easy to read, particularly in bright sunlight, which is not what you'd expect in a convertible or Cabrio.

A very small boot of just 245 litres would seriously limit your away day adventure so you may want to toss everything on the back seat and go just two-up.

I also found myself between votes on visibility. The DS was not brilliant when the roof was in place but dropping it simply pushed it all back on top of the luggage area and you could see even less behind but more to the sides.

The roof retracted electrically in stages at the push of a button and closed just as easily.

There is no doubt the Cabrio is a comfortable choice for a journey, for two anyway, and it's economical yet lively.

The reality is that the market offering four-seater convertibles or cabriolets is really very small in the UK so any model is very welcome and with DS 3 Cabrio BlueHDi you have a particularly striking and stylish economical car which offers some but few real compromises.

Mazda adds extra 6 appeal

By: Chris Russon

IMPROVEMENTS are being made to the Mazda6 as the Japanese car maker gives its large saloon and estate car a mid-life upgrade.

A torque vectoring system is being added to give the cars more traction, cabin noise levels are being reduced and some new technology is coming on board.

The engine line up, which features Mazda's fuel-efficient SKYACTIV system, remains unchanged with 2.0-litre petrol and 2.2-litre diesels but changes are being made to the diesel to make it more responsive.

Additional body insulation is also being fitted to make the cabin quieter.

Inside, there's a new-look steering wheel and the new Mazda6 has an updated head-up display using high resolution imagery.

There's also a new 4.6-inch full colour TFT driver information screen and a traffic sign recognition system which recognises no entry signs and also gives speed alerts.

On the safety front, Mazda has replaced the car's laser operated emergency braking system with a forward sensing camera set up which widens the speed range for detecting other vehicles.

Prices for the new Mazda6 range will be announced closer to the on-sale date later this year..

Honda's Insight into future motoring

By: Ian Johnson

THERE are few joys in negotiating busy morning town traffic, but just now and again there is a ray of sunshine when you spot a real rarity. This happened to me when I found myself waiting next to one of the most amazing cars that arrived on British shores at the dawn of the 2000s.

It was a first generation Honda Insight, the initial production vehicle to feature Honda's Integrated Motor Assist hybrid drive. With its futuristic look incorporating spatted-in rear wheels, this car was more reminiscent of Thunderbirds than the average British driveway and was regarded at first as an automotive oddity.

But the Insight was a main driver into the field of hybrid driving and has become a significant milestone in UK motoring history. It featured optimized aerodynamics and a lightweight aluminium structure to maximize fuel efficiency and minimize emissions.

Even as late as 2014 the first generation Insight still ranked as the most fuel-efficient United States Environmental Protection Agency certified petrol-fuelled vehicle, with a highway rating of 74 mpg and combined city/highway rating of 64 mpg.

The first-generation Insight was only produced as a two-seater with initially a single trim level, manual transmission and optional air conditioning.

The only major change during its life span was the introduction of a trunk mounted, front controlled, multiple-disc CD changer.

In addition to the hybrid drive system, the Insight was small, built of light materials and streamlined with a drag coefficient of 0.25.

The petrol engine was a three-cylinder unit of 67bhp and utilised lightweight aluminium, magnesium, and plastic to minimize weight.

The electric motor assist gave another 13bhp and a maximum of 49 Nm of torque when called on, with the aim to boost performance to the level of a typical 1.5-litre petrol engine.

It also acted as a generator during deceleration and braking to recharge the vehicle's batteries, and as the Insight's starter motor.

The Insight was assembled at the Honda factory in Suzuka, Japan.

With its aluminum body and frame, the Insight was an expensive car to produce and was never designed for high-volume sales.

Instead, it was designed to be a real world test car for hybrid technology and a gauge to new consumer driving habits.

IGNIS REIGNITED BY SUZUKI

By: Chris Russon

ANOTHER blast from the past is on the way from Suzuki which is reviving the Ignis name for its new compact crossover.

The new-look Ignis will have its debut next month at the Paris Motor Show before going on sale next January.

Like the new Baleno hatchback - which Suzuki launched only a few months ago and brought back a name it last used almost 20 years ago - the Ignis will have a hybrid powertrain for added economy as well as lightweight underpinnings for the body.

Suzuki will also be revealing a revised version of the SX4 S-Cross at the Paris show.

The facelifted model - which comes with a striking new front grille and other styling revisions - features 1.0-litre and 1.4-litre Boosterjet direct-injection turbo engines that replace the existing 1.6 petrol unit.

The 1.6 DDiS engine will stay in the new S-Cross range which will be launched in the UK in mid-October.

The last time Suzuki had an Ignis in its range was eight years ago when the name was used on a medium-sized hatchback which was on sale in Britain from 2003 to 2008.

POWER HIKE FOR NEW RANGE ROVERS

By: Chris Russon

THE most powerful Range Rover to date will be going on sale by the end of the year.

The SVAutobiography Dynamic has a 5.0-litre supercharged V8 engine with 550 horsepower on tap – and a price tag starting at £132,800.

Created by Land Rover's new Special Vehicle Operations division, the potent Range Rover shares its engine with the Range Rover Sport SVR and has a 0 to 60 acceleration time of 5.1 seconds.

With a revised suspension set up to handle the added power the car sits half-an-inch lower than the standard model.

It is also fitted with electronic Dynamic Response and Adaptive Dynamics systems to improve body control – and is the first Range Rover to feature red brake Brembo calipers.

High performance styling features include a quad exhaust system and the car is available with a choice of 21 or 22-inch alloys.

Land Rover is also introducing a 3.0-litre supercharged V6 petrol engine into the new Range Rover line up. Developing 340ps it gives the vehicle a 0 to 60 time of 7.1 seconds with emissions of 248g/km equating to 24.6mpg.

Other revisions for the new Range Rover series include additional driver safety features such as autonomous emergency braking and lane departure warning as standard.

The new line up is priced from £76,350 for the TDV6 diesel – an increase of around £500 over the current model.

SHARP NEW I30 REVEALED BY HYUNDAI

By: Chris Russon

HYUNDAI has released teaser images of its new i30 hatchback which is due to have its world premiere prior to the Paris Motor Show in September.

The car, a rival to the Ford Focus, builds on the Korean company's new design theme created by styling chief Peter Schreyer and first seen on the larger Tucson SUV. Schreyer says the car has been designed with European tastes in mind and it will be built at the Hyundai factory in the Czech Republic.

"The new Generation i30 is a car for everybody," said Schreyer, who is now the president and chief design officer of Hyundai Motor Group.

"From a design perspective, we haven't just considered one customer; we have focused on a wide range of different people."

"This model showcases an evolution of Hyundai Motor's design language with natural flowing lines, refined surfaces and a sculpted body to create a timeless appearance. We are also introducing our further developed grille: the Cascading grille."

The current i30, which arrived in the UK four years ago, has proved to be a popular seller and has helped boost Hyundai's small car range which also includes the i10 city car.

Last year, Hyundai sales grew by more than three per cent in Britain and the company is close to selling 100,000 models a year putting it into the top 10 car brands.

The new model, which will be the third generation i30, will be revealed on September 7 in Germany before its public debut at the Paris show at the end of the month.

KEEN PRICE FOR NEW AUDI CROSSOVER

By: Chris Russon

AUDI'S new Q2 crossover will cost from £20,230 when a 1.0-litre model joins the line up later this year.

The company has announced it will also be releasing a high specification first edition version when the newcomer arrives in November.

The initial range will be priced from £22,380 for a 1.4-litre petrol Q2 in SE trim with other derivatives being rolled out into 2017.

As well as the three-cylinder 1.0-litre model Audi plans to introduce 2.0-litre turbo quattro Q2 by the middle of next year.

All models will be fitted with full smartphone connectivity and Audi's new electro-mechanical power steering system which changes the feel of the vehicle depending on the speed.

The range topping Q2 Edition #1 will be priced from £31,370 and will be finished in a two-tone grey colour scheme with 19-inch alloy wheels and leather sports seats.

Great Britain has smashed it again

I'M going to sound a bit smart-after-the-event here, but I was always confident that Great Britain were going to perform well at the Olympics this summer.

A lot of our heroes from London 2012 are still in their prime and there were plenty of other athletes who have developed into world-class performers in the last four years.

There were so many realistic medal hopes, you couldn't help but feel optimistic about Team GB's chances out in Rio, but I don't think anybody expected them to be quite this good.

A lot of those considered 'dead certs' have delivered, including Mo Farah, Adam Peaty, Laura Trott, Alistair Brownlee and Giles Scott, who amongst others added yet another achievement to already glittering careers.

Then there have been those who we knew were brilliant, but have exceeded expectations – to an extent Andy Murray, for certain the likes of Max Whitlock and Jason Kenny, both history makers in Brazil.

This time last week, a Brit had never won Olympic gold in gymnastics. Whitlock not only put that hoodoo to bed by winning on the floor, but added the pommel horse title for good measure 90 minutes later.

At the same time, only one athlete from these isles had won three gold medals at an Olympiad since 1908 and when that said athlete, Sir Chris Hoy, claimed Kenny could emulate him, I put it down to him talking up an old mate.

Perhaps I should have listened to the now joint-most successful British Olympian as Kenny moved alongside the great Scot on six gold medals and one silver. Kenny is still only 28.

Then there were those previous unknown quantities, at least to the wider population, who instantly made themselves household names, such as Joe Clarke, Jack Laugher and Chris Mears.

A really satisfying part of all this success is that those who sniped in the early days of the Games that Great Britain were behind the likes of South Korea and Thailand in the medal table have fallen silent.

I'm talking about the sort of people who seem oddly fond of the time when we were largely hopeless at these sort of events and think old stereotypes still apply when it comes to 'plucky Brits' at the Olympics.

POWER COUPLE: Betrothed cyclists Jason Kenny and Laura Trott won five gold medals between them

That lot can't have had anything to talk about for over a week now. Oh wait, they have. They're now moaning that this country is now spending too much money to ensure sporting success.

I appreciate you can never please everyone, but that's just being contrary for the hell of it.

Sadly for those who take pleasure to see our compatriots succeed on the biggest stage, it all comes to an end today and our sleeping patterns will be able to return to normal after a brilliant couple of weeks.

That is until the Paralympics open on September 7. As demonstrated in London four years ago, they are just awesome.

IN VAIN: Ben Howgo struck a century

BEDFORDSHIRE ended their Minor Counties Championship campaign without a win after Hertfordshire inflicted on them an agonising defeat at Flitwick on Tuesday.

Beds had controlled the match through its first three innings and were heavy favourites to break their duck at the final time of asking after being set just 148 to win on the final day.

But the dismissal of captain

Cruel final blow for Bedfordshire after batting collapse

Andy Reynoldson during the afternoon of day three triggered a spectacular collapse that saw them lose their last six wickets for just 34 runs as they were bowled out for 139 – nine runs short of their target.

It had all started so well after Colin Griggs' 5-68 helped them bowl Hertfordshire out for 247 after slid dramatically from a comfortable 200-2, before Ben Howgo's brilliant 165, which included 23 fours and one six, saw Beds reach 348-6 before they declared.

This gave his side a first innings lead of 101 and they remained on top thanks to Ben Slawinski running riot in taking 6-62 during Hertfordshire's second innings.

The only visiting batsman that showed any real resistance this time was Dominic Chatfield, with an obdurate 88, as the hosts looked odds-on to seal victory.

But re-arranging their top order backfired as they were reduced to 49-3, with Howgo unable to get them out of trouble as he was bowled for just 18 by James Southgate.

Brad Finch proved to be Beds' main tormentor as he claimed 4-25 and the slide to defeat was eventually confirmed during the final evening when Darren James was caught by PEB Scott off the bowling of Sikandar.

ODs and Barton in the hat for the next round

IN THE Evo Stik Southern Premier League, Dunstable Town battled to a 0-0 home draw against Chippenham Town yesterday afternoon.

The Blues were under pressure for a lot of the first half and had a few chances from set plays in the first 15 minutes.

Towards the end of the half the game settled into a rhythm, with the visitors pressing well and Dunstable looking for a long ball over the top but to no avail.

Following the restart, both chances could have nicked a winner but in the end a draw was a fair result for both sides.

In the FA Cup preliminary round, AFC Dunstable are through to the second round with a 2-1 win at county rivals Bedford Town.

The opening goal came with just nine minutes on the clock when debutant Kyran McGhan-George got his tenure with the OD's off to a dream start, rising highest from a corner to guide the ball into the back of the net.

The Eagles kept pressure on the visitors and found an equaliser with 65 minutes on the clock, when Devante Stanley headed home.

However, Dunstable would not be held for long and scored what proved to be the winner with a header from striker Jermaine Hall.

Barton Rovers are also through to the next stage with a 3-1 win at Edgware Town, with Dan Hutchins and Connor Colcutt netting.

CROWD SCENE: Cameron McGeehan rises highest at a set-piece

FOOTBALL

BY JAMES CUNLIFFE

sport@lsnmedia.co.uk

OLLY Lee admitted that Luton were 'devastated' after losing 2-1 to Stevenage through a 96th minute Matt Godden sucker punch.

The midfielder had smashed the Boro bar seconds earlier as Town went in the hunt for a winner, but the hosts countered with Tom Pett and they dished out the Hatters' first defeat of the League Two campaign.

Cameron McGeehan's deflected shot had given the visitors a 15th minute lead and Luton passed their Hertfordshire rivals off the park but couldn't kill them off.

Connor Hunte equalised early in the second half and it set up an end-to-end finale.

"We're obviously all devastated," said Lee, adding: "We felt we deserved the win. We needed to be a bit more clinical in the final third. We outplayed them but just couldn't get that goal and they've hit us with a killer one."

"We felt we had more than enough chances to win the game but it was just one of those days where the ball wouldn't go in the net for us."

"We got a bit of a lucky goal from Cam, with a few deflections in there, and we just needed that second and third to kill the game off. Unfortunately for us it wasn't to be, but we move on."

Danny Hylton missed two good chances, Stephen O'Donnell struck the bar and McGeehan and Pelly-Ruddock Mpanzu both saw shots saved as the Hatters tried in vain to win the game, though Boro also twice hit the woodwork in a frantic finish.

"It was ridiculous. The ball just didn't seem to want to go in for us," Lee said, adding of his late strike that rattled the goal frame: "I couldn't believe it. I've hit it sweetly and I thought, 'that's in the top bag', but it was not to be. It was off the bar."

Luton boss Nathan Jones said: "I'm a little bit disappointed at the end. I thought we did everything to try to win the game away from home."

"In the first half I thought we should have been out of sight and it should have been a lot more comfortable, but obviously we've missed chances. That's football. You have to take them, you have to be clinical."

The result, Luton's first ever defeat at Broadhall Way, knocked them off top spot in the division, but Lee said: "It's one game, it's still early doors, we're still right up there and we've got to stay positive. We won't let one defeat get us down. There are going to be a lot of ups and downs this season and hopefully there are more ups than downs."

Luton suffer first defeat

FOOTBALL

BY JAMES CUNLIFFE
sport@lsmmedia.co.uk

STEVENAGE
LUTON TOWN

LUTON suffered a crushing taste of their own medicine as Stevenage's Matt Godden scored a 96th minute winner to end the Hatters' unbeaten start to the League Two campaign.

It was almost a carbon copy of what the Hatters did to Newport in midweek – a sucker punch in the same minute with same score inflicted by the same number of players – 10, after substitute Tom Conlon limped off with a ligament injury in the 90th minute.

It meant Town's first ever defeat at Broadhall Way and they only have themselves to blame for missing a glut of chances.

They took the lead through a deflected Cameron McGeehan shot on 15 minutes but they failed to turn the screw to cap some fantastic play.

Still, there was little sense that the game would end as it did when, for 53 minutes, Luton looked a cut above, while Boro seemed incapable of anything but capitulation.

That all changed early in the second half once lapse marking gifted Connor Hunte an equaliser.

And then, in a blood-and-thunder local derby ending, Boro twice battered Luton's bar and Olly Lee smashed Stevenage's only for the hosts to race straight up the other end and deliver the killer blow.

It knocked the Hatters off the top of the table, dropping to third, but it had all been so different in the beginning.

The Hatters had lift-off with their first shot at goal – even if it was courtesy of a deflected McGeehan shot. It was the midfielder's fourth of the season and third in two games and everything pointed to a comfortable afternoon, even more so once Luton began to turn on the style, passing their way through Stevenage in calculating fashion.

Danny Hylton was at the heart of the equation but something didn't add up as he squandered Town's best chances.

Before that, he, somewhat fortuitously, set up Jordan Cook who saw a curling effort just evade the far post, but then, having picked up his customary yellow card – when he stood in front of keeper Jamie Jones, who kicked the ball straight at his backside – the striker then passed up a glorious chance to hand the Hatters a comfortable half time lead. Jack Marriott measured up a stunning reverse pass through-ball to his strike partner but, one-on-one with Jones, he lifted his chance wide of the top corner.

That miss proved costly early in the second half when Godden's deep cross found Hunte at the back post and it was honours even.

Half chances came and went for Marriott and Stevenage's Jake Hyde before Hylton failed to get a boot to Cook's precision dink over Boro's backline.

Forced, increasingly, to play on the counter, Stephen O'Donnell almost scored a stunner when he detonated a cross-cum-shot off the crossbar, while McGeehan's follow-up was blocked and Cook's drive was straight down the throat of Jones.

Jones was equal to an effort from substitute Pelly-Ruddock Mpanzu and a rather more searing shot from Hylton after some fantastic footwork.

But the hosts also smelt blood and Tom Pett had Christian Walton scrambling across his goal line unnecessarily before a Ben Kennedy screamer slammed off the Luton bar but didn't cross the line. The woodwork would have still been rattling when Fraser Franks wobbled it again with a looping a header.

To their credit, Luton went for glory and they looked like they'd have to settle for a draw when Lee hit the woodwork, but the ball rebounded, Dan Potts and O'Donnell collided and Pett scampered off to set up Godden for the late, late sickener.

Stevenage: Jones; Franks, Wilkinson, McAnuff (Pett, 45), Hyde (Kennedy, 57), Tonge, Wells, Hunte (Conlon, 76), Lee, Godden, Henry
